How the LEA will Ensure Continuity of Services?

Safe Return to In-Person Instruction and Continuity of Services Plan (ARP Act)

Student academic needs are currently being serviced with in person learning. We have been approved for the instructional time model that allows us to use remote learning for 50 percent of the school year should that become necessary. SPED services are being accommodated in person and will continue that way. Our district has a social/emotional learning specialist, students and staff who are in need may seek her out on their own (and have) or students may be referred for counseling. We ask all of our students and staff members to do daily wellness checks prior to coming to school. Once they arrive on campus there are kiosks available for daily temperature checks along with hand held devices within each classroom. This is part of our employed mitigation strategies.

Students' Needs:

Academic Needs	Right now, we are in person learning. We have however developed an intermittent time model of remoter learning approved by our school board, whereby students that have contracted COVID or have to quarantine due to close contact can access their teacher and daily lessons via Zoom or Google Meet. This ensures they mis the least amount of school content
Social, Emotional and Mental Health Needs	AAEC employs a social emotional counselor. She works with both students and staff as she sees the need or if a student or staff member is referred for counseling
Other Needs (which may include student health and food services)	We ask all of our students and staff members to do daily wellness checks prior to coming to school. Once they arrive on campus there are kiosks available for daily temperature checks along with hand held devices within each classroom. This is part of our employed mitigation strategies.

Staff Needs:

Social, Emotional and Mental Health Needs	AAEC employs a social emotional counselor. She works with both students and staff as she sees the need or if a student or staff member is referred for counseling

Public Input

Describe the process used to seek public input, and how that input was taken into account in the revision of the plan:	We have used parent and community surveys to seek input regarding student learning throughout the pandemic. We use the information along with input from our administrative and teaching staff to develop and or revise our plans around student instruction.
